

Questions for Teachers for checking the efficacy of the online classes (Odd Semester – 2020)

Note: You may be asked to submit relevant documents as evidence to validate your response

1. Do you call/talk to your students regarding their absence or long leave.
2. Give an example of an innovative method that you used to make the students understand a concept
3. Apart from the daily 40 minutes session, what other academic support do you provide to our students.
4. Is there a method that you have evolved to check the daily efficacy of your teaching
5. How strict are you with students who join the class late or who log in beyond the scheduled time?
6. Do you remain in one location at home or campus when you teach?
7. If you are in the campus, do you use a classroom to teach your students?
8. Do you use the writing board while taking classes in the college?
9. Have you prepared a teaching planner for completing your lessons?
10. What is the percentage of syllabus/ lessons completed in your respective classes?
11. How many assignments have you given to students?
12. How many audio-based seminars were conducted in the class?
13. How many tests/quizzes were conducted in the class?

14. Did you discuss the test scores with your students and give feedback regularly?
15. How many revision sessions have you conducted so far?
16. Have you arranged for any remedial programmes for the students?
17. What kind of offline activities have you conducted during the 4th hour class from 2 PM – 2.40 PM?
18. What time do you forward the Google Meet link to class which is at 10.30 AM?
19. How do you maintain and manage the attendance of your class?
20. How do you record the attendance of the students?
21. How do you troubleshoot the technical glitches in the delivery of lessons?
22. How do you react when students say that your voice is breaking or not audible?
23. Have you identified the slow learners in your class?
24. What kind of differentiated learning methods do you use to deliver your lessons/lectures?
25. Did you attend any webinars to learn more about online teaching practices
26. What will be your overall rating of the online classes that you conduct in DRBCCC Hindu College?
27. Do you record syllabus completion details in Snippets Book on day today basis

Signature of the Teacher